Effective August 1, 1999 any person contracting to do plumbing work in Minnesota will be required by law to obtain a $25,000 "Code Compliance" bond.

The Law requires a bond that can be used to reimburse for up to $25,000 in cost, in a case where the consumer ends up paying for the corrected work that does not meet code.

Property owners planning on performing work on their own property must sign below and are responsible for code compliance.
